Superintendent's Highlights

The Fruitland School District is participating in the Learning for the 21st Century Program through the partnership of J. A. and Kathryn Albertson Foundation and the Boise State University Center for School Improvement. Through this outstanding partnership, the Fruitland Schools, K-12 will be implementing a more rigorous and relevant curriculum for all students.

The citizens of the Fruitland School District approved a $175,000 a year School Plant Facilities Levy. The voters approved the levy with a 79% approval rating. The Plan Levy will be used for capital improvements over the next 10 years.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

1998-99 Goals	Progress
Provide a more rigorous relevant curriculum	The district has completed public forums and developed a database to help compile and analyze community input. Our school district team attended an outstanding model schools conference in Atlanta, GA, during the summer of 1998. The district is progressing toward developing an aligned curriculum for grades K-12.
Promote the effective use of technology	The district has implemented a high school technology internship program, employed a technology specialist, and technology lab assistants to work with staff and students, K-12.
Provide a healthy and safe Elementary School	Installed a new geo-fired heating and air conditioning system. The teaching and learning environment has improved significantly for the staff and students.
